

SP² End User License Agreement

DEFINITIONS:

"Software" shall be taken to mean the software downloaded in this zip file and any subsequent versions or upgrades received as a result of having purchased this package. The software is known as SP² (also known as "Software Package Selection Process" or "SP Squared")

"Buyer" shall be taken as the original purchaser of the software. If the Buyer is a multinational organisation, the purchase applies only to the division within the country that made the purchase

COPYRIGHTS:

Copyright 2009 Project Perfect. All Rights Reserved.

The software is Copyright 2009 Project Perfect. All rights reserved. This software may not, in whole or in any part, be made available outside the buyer's organisation without permission in writing, from Project Perfect

You are granted a limited license to use this software. The software may be used or copied only in accordance with the terms of that license, which is described in the following paragraphs.

TRADEMARKS:

The Project Perfect logo and the logo for SP² are not to be reproduced without the express written permission of Project Perfect

LICENSE:

The software is sold as a single user license. Single user refers to one organisation in one country. If the software is to be used outside that country, a multi country license will need to be in place. Project Perfect should be contacted to negotiate a multi country license.

The buyer has the non-exclusive right to use the software within their country. The buyer may not electronically transfer the program from one country to another over any type of network.

The buyer may not distribute copies of the software or the accompanying documentation to others either for a fee or without charge. The buyer may however modify or translate the program or documentation.

The buyer may not publish the software on a publically available network including, but not limited to the Internet.

The buyer's use of the software indicates his/her acceptance of these terms and conditions. If the buyer does not agree to these conditions, they should destroy the distribution media, documentation, and associated materials, and erase the software from any and all storage devices upon which it may have been installed.

This license agreement shall be governed by the laws of New South Wales in Australia and shall inure to the benefit of Project Perfect or its assigns.

DISCLAIMER / LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

The buyer acknowledges that the software may not be free from defects and may not satisfy all of buyer's needs.

Project Perfect warrants all media on which the software is distributed for 60 days to be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use. The software and any accompanying written materials are licensed "as is". The buyer's exclusive remedy during the warranty period shall consist of replacement of distribution media if determined to be faulty.

In no event will Project Perfect be liable for direct, indirect, incidental or consequential damage or damages resulting from loss of use, or loss of anticipated profits resulting from any defect in the program, even if it has been advised of the possibility of such damage. Some laws do not allow the exclusion or limitation of implied warranties or liabilities for incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations or exclusion may not apply.

Further, Project Perfect will not accept responsibility for losses or issues arising from the guidance and advice provided in SP². Advice is provided in good faith and is generic to software purchase and implementation. Each situation will require the advice be evaluated, and if considered appropriate by the buyer, applied to the project. Not all advice is applicable in all situations. If the buyer is in doubt, about a specific piece of information provided within the software, they should seek external advice.
